

A map of the state of Georgia with county boundaries. The city of Atlanta is marked with a circle in the north-central part of the state. A blue line representing the Flint River flows from the north towards the south. The city of Albany is marked with a circle in the south-central part of the state. A rectangular box highlights the area around Albany, which is further detailed in an inset map below.

Atlanta

Flint
River

Albany

A legend consisting of a yellow dashed line forming a square shape.

Approximate Backbone - Broadband Network

Albany

Calhoun

Early

Baker

Miller

Mitchell

Flint River