

Volunteer Role Open: Prairie Border Mower

©Katey Powell

Time Commitment: 2-4 hours a month

Day of Week: Open, flexible

Location: Prairie Border Nature Preserve, 9613 300
East, Wheatfield, IN 46392

Do you enjoy mowing and wish you could do more of it, all the while helping nature? Join the volunteer team as trail mower at Prairie Border Nature Preserve in Jasper County!

The mower volunteer will assist with maintaining the trail at Prairie Border by regularly mowing to a walkable height. This will enable all visitors to enjoy the trail and preserve and add much appreciated support to the Land Stewardship team.

This volunteer will work alongside the Land Steward for the property and all supplies, including mower, will be provided. Experience with large riding mowers is strongly appreciated but not required.

Duties may include:

- Mowing trail and fire lines
- Conducting basic maintenance on mower
- Coordinating with Land Stewardship staff on equipment availability
- Completing training on mower and equipment use
- Tracking volunteer hours for inclusion in program reports
- Supporting staff with other stewardship tasks as interested and available

Desired background or experience:

- Experience with push mowers, especially DR push mowers
- Experience with essential maintenance on mowers
- Comfortable working in remote areas off-trail
