IF TREES COULD SING Preserving Our Trees If Trees Could Sing is a video program in which music artists talk about various trees and their important role in our lives. Use this map to find the interactive tree signs for each music artist. Lake Trail Spillway Trail 1.32 Mi. 0.27 Mi. Walter Criley Spillway Visitor Center Ganier Ridge Trail Bridge 1.55 Mi. Parking Miles Historic Valve House Trail .25 Otter Creek Road Section 1 0.25 Mi. 0.16 Mi. Dam Walkway Radnor Lake 0.19 Mi. Radnor Lake Nashville, Tennessee Otter Creek Road Section 2 0.83 Mi. Access Trail Park Trails -Park Centers 0.24 Mi. East Parking Park Roads = Restrooms Tree Locations Scenic View Parking Areas Bridge South Lake Trai 0.89 Mi. Tree Music Artist Otter Creek Road Section 3 1. 8Ball Tree Introduction 0.18 Mi. 2. Deanie Richardson Shagbark Hickory 3. Bela Fleck & The Nature Conservancy Sugar Maple Radnor Lake State Park Abigail Washburn 4. Jim Lauderdale Sugarberry South Cove Trail 5. Victor Wooten Black Walnut Protecting nature. Preserving life. 1.18 Mi. 6. Bill Lloyd Yellowwood Hall Drive Trail 7. Annie Sellick Tulip Poplar 0.37 Mi. 8. Mike Farris Eastern Red Cedar Education 9. Farmer Jason Hackberry Center 10. Big Kenny State Parks Tree Introduction