

Silver Creek Preserve Use Highlights and Rules

- All visitors must sign in either at the Visitors Center or electronically prior to entering the Preserve.
- The Preserve is always open to visitors - Sunrise to Sunset.
- Access is free, but a donation of $10 per day will help to maintain the Preserve.
- The Preserve hosts a variety of uses with different activities like fishing, canoeing, hiking and birding. Please be respectful of other users, in addition to wildlife.
- Seven miles of hiking trails are maintained on the Preserve for Foot Travel Only.
- Fishing and Waterfowl Hunting. The Conservancy allows access to Silver Creek for fishing and waterfowl hunting, both activities are regulated by the Idaho Department of Fish and Game.
- Use of the Visitors Center Porch. We encourage family, visitors, and school groups to use the porch for picnicking. Barbeques are not allowed.
- Restrooms. There are three outhouses for use by visitors.
- No motorized boats are allowed on Silver Creek.
- No dogs are allowed on the Preserve.
- Use caution and never approach, feed, or disturb wildlife.
- Collecting plants is strictly prohibited. Exceptions may be granted for research purposes.
- No overnight camping and No campfires.
- Beware of hazards. Many hazards exist throughout our property. These include moose and elk, poisonous snakes, ticks, stinging insects, holes, roots, stumps, fallen branches, open waterways, and other hazards.
- Combat the spread of invasive species by washing and drying floating and wading gear before and after entering the Preserve.
- Trash and Recycling. Visitors are asked to pack out what they bring in. This includes fishing line and food scraps. There is no public trash or recycling on the Preserve.
