

Northwest Iowa Ag Stewardship Alliance

Membership Form

The Northwest Iowa Ag Stewardship Alliance (NIASA) supports the adoption of conservation agricultural practices that benefit both the farmers' bottom lines and the environment. Members are requested to share information about their practices for the purpose of education and to help further develop NIASA's programs.

Member benefits include networking with the agricultural community, eligibility for NIASA's cost-share programs and numerous learning opportunities including but not limited to meetings and field days offered throughout the year.
