

The James Stover Block Island Exploration Series

Discover the fascinating nature of Block Island. Guided monthly walks for families (with kids of all ages) and individuals. Explore areas and species special to Block Island. These walks are funded by friends of James Stover (1996-2003), in memory of a boy who loved exploring Block Island.

200th Anniversary Walk at Lewis Farm

December 30 at 1 p.m.

Follow signs off Cooneymus Road

Winter Walk

Fresh Swamp Preserve

January 27 at 10 a.m.

Meet at the Lakeside Drive entrance

Those Amazing Seals

February 17 at 2 p.m.

Learn about these wonderful winter residents and other marine mammals that can be seen this time of year

Meet at Parish Center parking lot off Spring Street.

Photos: Keith Lang, Geoff Dennis

The Nature
Conservancy 