

(WARNING: This flier is so full of great trips that you might need THREE magnets to hold it on your refrigerator.)

GO NATURAL (IT'S AN ARKANSAS BIRTHRIGHT!)

March 24 ≈ Friday ≈ 11:00 am > 1:30 pm

RANCH FLOAT

Little Rock ≈ Lizzy East

Join us for a quick getaway at Ranch North Woods Preserve. We will paddle around the Little Maumelle, check out the preserve's latest addition—a floating camping platform—and enjoy the view of Pinnacle Mountain. We guarantee you will feel a million miles away from the hustle and bustle!

April 7 ≈ Friday ≈ 1:00 pm > 4:00 pm

SMITH CREEK HIKE AND DEDICATION

Newton County ≈ Lizzy East

Join the Conservancy and Buffalo River Foundation to celebrate the latest addition to Smith Creek Preserve and the many generous supporters who made it happen, including lead donor Tyson Foods, Inc. After a few remarks, we'll hike and enjoy the vibrant wildflowers that bloom around every turn. Please let us know you're coming by April 2—RSVP to Lizzy East eeast@tnc.org or (501) 614-5088. (NO FEE)

April 29 ≈ Saturday ≈ 10:00 am > 12:00 pm

ROB AND MELANI WALTON HIKE

Garfield ≈ Lizzy East

Looking for a fun place to explore in Northwest Arkansas? Then look no further than the Rob and Melani Walton Nature Preserve. Join us as we explore and hike the trails at the preserve and catch some beautiful views of Beaver Lake.

May 13 ≈ Saturday ≈ 9:00 am > 4:00 pm

PLEIN AIR AT THE PRESERVE- PAINTING FIELD TRIP AT RANCH

Little Rock ≈ Lizzy East

Join us for a day of art and fresh air! Local artist and teacher Jeannie Guthrie will set up at a beautiful spot on Ranch North Woods Preserve with breathtaking views of Pinnacle Mountain and the Little Maumelle River. Bring your creative spirit and artistic touch to capture the beauty of nature. Beginners are welcome, and a supply list will be provided to those who sign up. And if painting isn't your thing, just come out and enjoy the view! (NO FEE)

May 26 ≈ Friday ≈ 10:00 am > 2:00 pm

GRASSY LAKE FLOAT

Mayflower ≈ Lizzy East

The Grassy Lake Water Trail is one of our favorite Arkansas water trails, and we would love to give you a tour, by boat of course! The flatwater trail winds through cypress-tupelo lakes and sloughs and provides great opportunities to catch a glimpse of wildlife.

June 16 ≈ Friday ≈ 11:00 am > 2:00 pm ARCHEY FORK RESTORATION TOUR AND BLUFFTON PRESERVE SWIM

Clinton ≈ Lizzy East

Help us say hello to summer by splashing around in a cool river. Join us as we explore the Archey Fork of the Little Red River with a tour of the restoration site in Clinton and a picnic and swim down the road at Bluffton Preserve. Inner tubes will be provided!

To reserve your spot, contact Lizzy East at (501) 614-5088, eeast@tnc.org. Space is limited, so make your reservation early. Each trip is $25 per adult unless otherwise noted, but kids get to tag along for free. (Sorry. Grown-up "kids" still have to pay.) Don't forget to pack a picnic!

The Nature
Conservancy 